Typing errors

"I'd forgotten how the note began. I'd forgotten all of it, honestly. All gone; erased from my mind, but still immediately recognisable. I could hear the words in my head as I read them.

*You're probably wondering why. This might be the answer.
Sorry for any typing errors.*

I apologised for typos. I don't even know how to feel about that. I think I should find it perversely amusing, but somehow the words just cut straight through me now, and make me bleed in a way that's somehow new, despite having lived more than four decades on earth. Those were my words. They were meant to be my last."
